Winners of the CCUW LIVE UNITED® Sweepstakes Announced

Six generous individuals and one business in Callaway County have won big prizes.

Fulton, MO December 29, 2011: For the first time, the Callaway County United Way offered a sweepstakes in conjunction with their annual fundraising campaign. Any individual who gave had their name placed into the drawing pool and any business that held an employee campaign, or made a donations to the campaign, was added to a second drawing. Prizes ranged from a laptop to a business membership in the Kingdom of Callaway Chamber of Commerce.

“All the prizes were donated by local businesses and individuals,” said Kathy Richey Liddle, Executive Director of the Callaway County United Way. “No United Way money was used toward these sweepstakes prizes,” she concluded.

Winners were chosen on December 16th and notified immediately after the drawing. The winners and their prizes are:

- Toshiba Laptop – Daniel Powell who donated through employee campaign at Ovid Bell Press.
- $100 Walmart Gift Card – Marilyn Dunham, an individual donor
- $100 Gas Card – Kathy Keeling, who donated at the CCUW Radiothon
- $100 C&R Gift Card – Mary Curtis, who donated through the Fulton Public Schools employee campaign
- $100 C&R Gift Card – Pam Oestreich, who donated through the Callaway County Employee Campaign
- $100 Sault’s Gift Card – Martha Wayne who donated through the WWU employee campaign

The winner of the Chamber of Commerce membership was Hawkins Plumbing and Heating.

The Callaway County United Way appreciates all donations which go toward funding 14 local agencies that provided 200 services to 20,000 last year. The organization would also like to thank the following businesses for donating the sweepstakes prizes: Walmart, Premiere Parties and Events, B-Line Engraving, Twillman Feed, C&R Market and the Kingdom of Callaway Chamber of Commerce.
